

THE UPSTATE CHAPTER OF THE SC NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY PRESENTS

COLOR YOUR WORLD with natives

www.scnps.org

Wild Columbine Aquilegia canadensis

The only Columbine native to the eastern United States, Wild Columbine has red flowers with yellow centers and long protruding stamens. It can usually be seen at Pearson's Falls near Saluda, NC, in April or May.

Illustration by Paul E. Kennedy for American Wild Flowers Coloring Book
© Dover Publications